PLEADS NOT GUILTY TO SELLING GIRL LIQUOR

Hotel Proprietor Arraigned on Charge Brought by Minor's Mother.

Asks Jury Trial.

Thomas Taylor, president of the Hotel
Sterling Company, pleaded not guilty in Police Court yesterday to selling liquor to a fifteen-year-old girl. Leon Tobriner, his attorney, demanded a jury trial and the case was continued. Taylor furnished $200 collateral.

George M. Hoblitzell, an insurance man, who was arrested on the charge of giving the liquor to the siri, was released on $50 bend after his case had been continued.

The case was brought to the attention of the police by the manager of the hotel, who sought to prevent the laste of a warrant. A short time afterward, the girl's mother asked for a warrant. George Nesline, a salounkeeper, de-manded a jury trial when he was ar-raigned, charged with selling liquor to President Poincare visited the front south of Le Quesnoy-en-Santerre, where he saw a charge by French infantry and watched several batteries in action. The executive stood in a sheltered position upon a hill top in the rear of the firing line. He was warned that there was danger from German shells, but the President replied:

"If you gentlemen can stand it I can."

"If you gentlement of a number can."

Afterward he distributed a number of medals. One recipient of a medal was so badly wounded that he had to be supported by two comrades while the decoration was pinned upon his

A diverce decree of interest in Alexandria County, granted in the Circuit Court of that county by Judge J. B. T. Thornton, on which an appeal has been asked of the State Court of Appeals, is that of Joseph A. Kelly against Mary Ann Kelly.

Kelly, a former resident of Boston, Mass, sund for a diverge in the Circuit. Commissioner Newman yesterday filed a brief in the District Court of Appeala citing ten assignments of error in the ouster judgment randered asainst him by the District Supreme Court.

The chief contention in the appeal from the finding of a jury in District Supreme Court was that it was not pointed out to the jurors that the evidence on which they based their decision ousting Commissioner Newman, had been passed on by the Senate and the President, and that the presumption was, in favor of Mr. Newman.
